Ref. No. IRAC/01/01/2022-23

Date 25.09.2022

Establishment of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

The NAAC recommends that every accredited institution needs to establish an Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) as a post-accreditation measure to sustain quality. This cell will integrate into the institutional framework and aim to enhance and sustain quality within the institution. Its primary goal will be to establish a framework for continual and purposeful improvement in institutional performance. As a result, the IQAC will concentrate institutional endeavors and benchmarks on achieving academic excellence.

1. Ensuring prompt, effective, and advancing execution of academic, administrative, and financial responsibilities.
2. Ensuring the pertinence and quality assurance of academic and research programs.
3. Increasing and incorporating contemporary and suitable teaching and learning methodologies.
4. Ensuring adequacy, upkeep, and functionality of support structures and services.
5. Developing and implementing quality standards for diverse academic and administrative tasks to foster improvement in academic quality and academic environment.
6. Organizing workshops, seminars on quality-related topics, and fostering quality circles.
7. Documentation of the diverse programs and initiatives aimed at enhancing quality.
8. Serving as the central agency within the institution for quality-related endeavors.
9. Preparing the AQAR for submitting to NAAC indicating and emphasizing the quality measures taken from time to time by the institution.

Therefore, for the purpose of attaining the desired objectives as per the NAAC guidelines IQAC is being constituted comprising of the following-

1. Prof. Ravindra Kumar, Principal
2. Shri Umesh Shah
3. Shri Surendra Pal Singh
4. Prof. Ram Samujh Singh
